

Everyone having fun painting fabric in Becky and John's kitchen

Lily Kerns placed cutout dolls and marbles on her piece to see what affect the sun would have.

Cher Piche painted mountains and placed fern leaves, chain, dollies, and a few other objects for the sun to play with.

Janice Lauderdale placed leaves on hers and Maureen Ashlock used safety pins and lace.

Eleanor Bronnenberg not only used washers, she found a new use for those old surgical gloves.
